Officer Zahina was dispatched to the United Baggage Officer for a girl that was hiding in their back office. He responded to the location and after few minutes he requested another unit. I responded to same. Upon my arrival, Ofc Zahina and Ofc Kutu were interviewing the subject, later identified as B Filipiak. I was advised B Filipiak admitted to having identification on him; however he was refused to provide any identification to Ofc Zahina for his investigation. Eventually, B Filipiak provided Ofc Zahina with his Michigan driver license and his [REDACTED] Sheriffs Identification card. I asked B Filipiak for the name of his commanding officer and their telephone number. He stated he was not going to give it me. I repeated my question and he ignored me. I conducted a pat-down search for weapons with negative results. I could smell the odor of intoxicants from his person. I asked him if he has been drinking, he stated yes. I asked him how much, he stated a few beers. Also, he admitted of driving to the airport and he parked his vehicle in the blue deck. Ofc Zahina instructed him to call somebody to drive him home because he will not be allowed to drive home in his current condition.

Ofc Zahina advised me that his daughter [REDACTED] told him that she was afraid of him and he had been drinking. She wanted nothing to do with her father, B Filipiak. No threats of harm and/or acts of assaults had occurred to her. He then spoke with B Filipiak's wife on the telephone. She stated to him that she was coming to the airport to pick up [REDACTED] however she wanted nothing to do with him. Ofc Kutu and I stood by with B Filipiak while Ofc Zahina united [REDACTED] with her step-mother [REDACTED]. While we were waiting, I told B. Filipiak multiple times to call somebody to drive him home. Ofc Zahina returned and advised B Filipiak that his daughter was picked up by his wife and they have left the airport. He was free to leave, however he could not drive his car or he will be arrested. I asked B. Filipiak if he had a credit card for a taxi or if there is somebody we could contact for him. He stated he did have a credit card on him and told me not to worry about it. I spoke with Lt Walls and advised him of the situation. I told B. Filipiak that he needed to get a ride home, however he refused any cooperation and assistance from me and walked away towards the parking deck. I conducted a search of the parking deck with negative results.

On 7/21/13 at approximately 0030 hours, I was dispatched to the United Airlines baggage service office in the North Terminal to assist a female juvenile ([REDACTED]) who was afraid to go with her father (reported by Connie Boudourakis from United). Upon arrival, I located [REDACTED] in the back room of the United office. She was crying and was visibly shaken. [REDACTED] explained that she had just flown back from her mother's house out of state and was supposed to get a ride home with her father (B. Filipiak). [REDACTED] stated that when she met her father in baggage claim, he was acting strangely and appeared intoxicated. She stated that she was afraid to go home with him and was on the phone with her stepmother to arrange a ride home. She stepped out of the back office briefly and pointed out her father standing on the opposite side of luggage claim near carousel 5.

I made contact with the father (B. Filipiak) near carousel 5. I explained the reason for speaking with him and that his daughter was concerned about going home with him. It became immediately apparent that B. Filipiak was intoxicated. There was an odor of intoxicants coming from his breath and his eyes appeared red and glossy. I asked how he got to the airport and he stated that he drove. I advised B. Filipiak to make some phone calls to arrange to have he and his daughter picked up. I requested his ID and he repeatedly refused to provide it. I explained that he was required to provide ID at my request or face arrest. B. Filipiak stated, "You won't arrest me," and "You don't know who I am, do you?" At this time, I requested another officer to my location. Cpl. Kutty and Lt. Tavgigian arrived to assist. Cpl. Kutty and I again explained that he needed to provide ID and he finally complied. B. Filipiak handed me his Michigan operator's license and a [REDACTED] Sheriff's Office ID. I directed him to use his phone to try to acquire transportation to his home. At this time, I turned control of the scene over to Lt. Tavgigian.

I returned to the United office and spoke with United employee Dashner (DTW# [REDACTED]). Dashner stated that [REDACTED] had arrived in her office and stated she was afraid of someone and needed help. Dashner stated that she advised her coworker to call the Airport Police and allowed [REDACTED] to wait in the back room. I spoke with the juvenile's stepmother ([REDACTED]) by telephone. She stated that she was on her way to pick up her stepdaughter, but that she did not want to give her husband a ride home to Pinckney. Once she arrived, I escorted [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] to their vehicle, provided them with a call for service number, and allowed them to leave the area.

I spoke with B. Filipiak again and ordered him to leave the area. He was advised that he was free to leave, but that if he returned to the terminal or attempted to drive his vehicle from the area that he would be arrested. We offered assistance in arranging a ride, but he refused. I directed B. Filipiak to the ground transportation area and he departed in that direction. I briefly positioned my patrol vehicle near the parking deck exit to discourage B. Filipiak from driving out in his vehicle.

I made contact with Andy with WCAA Security. He secured CCTV footage of the incident and was provided with a call for service number.

I cleared without further incident.
